

Department of Chemistry

The aim of the Department of Chemistry is to become a pioneering international institution of education and research focused on research and inquisition in technology and educate chemists with competent knowledge in both the traditional and modern branches of chemistry and able to work in all branches of the chemical industry.

Our primary target is to educate graduates who possess the ability of scientific and multidimensional thought and the knowledge and ability to interpret results, are competent in the field of scientific and technological developments, can carry out R&D work and create original material, patents and new methods contributing to the development of technology.

Our department has 5 divisions with an academic staff including 16 professors, 8 associate professors, 14 assistant professors, 2 teaching staff, 40 research assistants and 2 specialists.

Divisions

- Inorganic Chemistry
- Analytical Chemistry
- Physical Chemistry
- Biochemistry
- Organic Chemistry

Contact

Department of Chemistry

Davutpaşa Campus
34210 Esenler - Istanbul - Turkey
Phone : +90 212 383 4131
Fax : +90 212 383 4134
www.kml.yildiz.edu.tr

