

Department of Turkish Language

The Department of Turkish Language organizes the Turkish lessons to be taught to the students of our university as weekly two-hour lessons over two semesters in accordance with the framework program of YÖK (Higher Education Council).

The lessons aim to teach the structure and basic grammatical characteristics of Turkish, to provide the required level of comprehension in reading and to expand the vocabulary of students. The lessons also provide linguistic awareness, literary taste and habit and teach the correct use of basic spelling and punctuation.
