

Department of Foreign Language Education

The Department of Foreign Language Education was founded in the 2004-2005 academic year in order to meet the demand for English teachers which has increased and intensified after 1980.

The vision of the Department of Foreign Language Education is to become a program which trains comprehensively equipped foreign language teachers who follow national and international developments in the field of foreign language education; establish interaction and communication between diverse branches of science and produce results which will form the basis for future visions.

The educational activities of our department which has one division are carried out by academic staff comprising 2 assistant professors, 1 teaching staff holding a PhD and 3 research assistants.
